Agents Sell Tickets and Disburse Small Prizes-Whole Matter Said to be Chicago Fraud.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEWFORT NEWS, VA., October 4.-A man from the president of the republic of Panama has set the Federal secret service men to work in an attempt to unearth what seems to be a gigantic swindle; for about a year several local men have been in charge of an agency for what they represented to be the Panama lottery. Tickets have been sold by the hundreds all over the city and at the end of every two weeks the agents have circulated slips containing the results of drawings alleged to have been held in Panama.

On numerous occasions holders of tickets have made small winnings, and have ets have made small winnings, and have received their money by presenting the tickets to the agents from whom they were purchased. The tickets represent that the capital prize is $3,000, and the prizes range down to $1. One dollar is the price of whole tickets and half and quarter tickets are sold. If a quarter ticket should draw the capital prize, the holder received from the prize tickets and the capital prize, the holder active $1.00 for the prize ticket should draw the capital prize, the holder active $1.00 for the prize tickets. should draw the capital prize, the holder should receive $750. No large prizes have been drawn, except in one instance, when, it is alleged, a man held a ticket entitling him to $1,500 and will be informed that an error had been made in printing the slip.

Recently a local man, curious to find out something about the lottery, adout something about the lottery, ad-dressed a letter to the secretary of the embassy at Washington. The secretary answered that he did not believe there was such a lottery in the republic and advised that the President be communiadvised that the President be communi-cated with.

A letter to the President brought the reply that such a lottery did not exist in Panama, and that the scheme being worked in this country was evidently fraudulent. The secret service office at Washington was then notified and agents are now at work on the case. It is said that the headquarters of the people operating through local agents, has been traced to Chicago, and that arrests may

It is also said that the scheme is being worked in cities all over the country.

BENEFACTORS' DAY.

Trinity College Received $130,ooo During the Year.

Ooo During the Year.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DURHAM, N. C. Oct. 4—Yesterday was benefactor's day at Trinity College. Exercises were held last night, at which time ex-Governor Jarvis, of North Carolina, was the speaker.

After the address Dr. J. C. Kilgo announced that the benefactions to the institutions during the past year amounted to slightly over $130,000. He also announced, for the first time, that Mr. J. B. Duke, of New York, and Mr. B. N. Duke, of this city, had decided to give $6,000 annually to the newly instituted law department of the college, and that they had offered to give a permanent endowment of $5,000 for this department on the condition that it be duplicated.

The benefactors' day is always looked forward to by the trustees, faculty and student body of the college as one of great importance, and on this account there was a large crowd of admirers of the college present. Music was furnished by the Glee Club.

Rev. C. J. Thompson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is under treatment at the Rex Hospital inskladeigh.

ABOUT TOWN

When clover blossoms fade away, and leaves begin to turn;
When farmers gather faggots up, and brush piles gin to burn;
When old Jack Frost gets in the game, with luscious 'simmons rips.
That is the time to sit by fire and hit the old cob pips.
When open cars are taken off, and closed ones are put in.
The time for top coats has arrived; hay fever to begin,
we love the sound of autumn breeze, the song of old Bob White;
We love to sit close to the one we love with all our might.
But there's a thing we like to say that puts us in a mess,
When the g'rl we go to take to show consumes one hour to dress.

Of course when a fellow goes to a ball

Of course when a fellow goes to a ball game and howls hymself hourse and hosky over George Dally's Brownies, or Pete Taylor's Imperials, he has a right to go to his clob and get something to clear the passage through his windpipe. Sometines he goes to see Eugene Blottner and Mister Hamilin at Palste, on his way back from the park. There he also gots something to clear his throat. Sometimes also Eugene runs out of the usual fluid, and then he goes with his friend Montague to Albert Anthony's canavansary, and there he meets Skillet Jones and Hippy, the mascot, and Charlie Eache and Fitzpairick, the best pitcher in the league.

They talk it all over, and releve the pressure on the throat, and get in trim for the next game.

The Imperials tell, the Brownies they

And there you are.

Mister James T. Doyle, business manager for "A Despenate Chance," told a very funny story when he was here last week, which happened to him while playing a small town in Idaho.

"Last season, while walking up the main street," he said; "I saw the bill poster up a long ladder putting up some bils. It was quite windy and one of the sheets, got away from him. He asked me to hand it to him, which I did. Just as he was about to hing the paper the fire bell rang; instantly he dropped his brush, cramped his legs to the ladder, sild down, and rushed away, upsetting the contents of the paste bucket all over me. In a few minutes he returned and told me he wis a member of the volunteer fire department, and if he did not go to the fire he would be fined twenty-flye cents.
